

How are the British Values developed in Physical Education?

British Value	Links with Physical Education
Democracy	To understand that it is not always possible or right to have their own way and understand the value of compromise.
Rule of Law	To understand the importance of rules in a game. To understand and accept that rules are there to make a game fair. To understand that rules must be adhered to show sportsmanship.
Individual Liberty	To understand that they are able to listen to others and can communicate to their team during a game or activity. To recognise that others' ideas may not be the same as their own but are able to accept this.
Mutual respect/tolerance	To listen to and consider the ideas and opinions of others even if they differ from your own. To respect their opponents when winning and losing.
